

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. "Heneage Finch, May 2d, 1702. Having several Medals (and many of them very rare ones) in my possession, which relate to places mentioned in this book, but neither engraved nor describ'd in it, I have design'd them in the margin, with short notes of explanation." "I have chosen (that I might give the truer idea of my Medals) to draw them in their true proportion. I have sett a mark to each, expressing their metal, as AR for silver, Æ for brass and copper, and have also marked how many grains each silver medal weighs."

tyranny of the first four years of Charles I with that of James II, 1691—Letter from General Ludlow to Dr. Hollingworth, 1691—Ludlow no Lyar, 1692, 5s 4to
 - 64 Ludlow (General) Three Letters, comparing the oppressive government of Charles I with that of James II, and vindicating the Parliament of 1640, 3s 4to, 1812
- * When Baron Maseres republished these three Letters as the work of General Ludlow, he was ignorant of the existence of a fourth, subsequently published. To this fourth is prefixed an address to Dr. Hollingworth, who had attacked them as the work of Ludlow, in which the writer says, "You know well the letters were not written by the gentleman whose name they bear." This address is without any name of author; but in one copy the name of "Slingsby Bethell" is written at the end, and it is most probable that he was the author of the letters.

8877 Bayning (Paul Vt. Bayning, of Sudbury, Suffolk) Funeral Sermon, by R. Willan, 7s 6d 4to, 1630

* * "Bookes are the rivers of Paradise watering the Earth; the dew of Hermion making the vallies fertile; the arke preserving the mannas pot, and Moses tables; the monuments of ancient labours; the baskets keeping the deposited reliques of time, so as nothing is lost; a magazine of piety and arts. A souldier without armes may bee valiant, but not victorious; an artisan without his instruments may bee skillful, but not famous; Archimedes is knowne by his spheare and cylinder; a preacher without books may have some zeale, but little knowledge to guide it. St. Paul himselfe, although so inspired, found as much want of his bookes as of his cloake in winter. To ayme at learning without bookes is, with the Danaides, to draw water in a sive, &c. &c."—p. 40.
